

Role Title: PEER 2ic
Team: PEER Rangers

PEER Ranger team purpose:

Psychological and Emotional Emergency Response (PEER) Rangers are a specialist arm of the Red Earth Ranger Team. PEERs aim to respond to and manage situations during the event that may require a specialised person with specialist skills and training. PEERs may be required to respond to:

- consent issues between participants (groping, fondling, sexual harassment, sexual assault etc)
- entering personal space and physical space (tents etc) without prior consent with the intention of behaving inappropriately
- intimate partner violence
- emotional crises arising at the event
- psychological issues that can be managed at the event
- Death and/or serious injury

This list is not exhaustive and is used as a guide only.

Key responsibilities

- Share load of attendance at regular meetings with PEER Team Lead
- Assist with recruitment of potential PEER Rangers before the event
- Assist PEER Team Lead with identifying appropriate applicants
- Assist with training and education of all Rangers, including PEERS before the event
- Assist with management of the PEER Ranger roster during the event
- Share urgent radio communications relating to serious assaults during the event with the PEER Team Lead
- Respond to PEER emails in a timely manner

Skills, experience and qualifications

Mandatory: Professional extensive experience in responding to any of the following:

- sexual assault
- domestic violence
- suicidal ideation
- mental health issues
- personal/psychological crises

Desirable:

- Experience in similar teams at other festivals and/or events
- Ability to perform intermediate word processing tasks and develop simple data systems and surveys etc.

Version and revision date: v1 (7 June 2016)