

We, the Directors of Red Earth City (REC), value the effort, time, and passion being demonstrated by the Burning Seed community through the community engagement process. We are committed to ensuring the best outcome for Seed, and that the Burning Seed organisation is appropriately structured to meet current needs, as well as future challenges. We agree that the most suitable form for the new Burning Seed organisation is a membership based organisation and that such a change is necessary and timely.

A Restructure Sub-Committee has been formed to work with us and the Burning Seed Town Council to facilitate a consultation process with the community and to prepare a report which will form a binding agreement with the REC Board. The proposed outcomes are clearly defined in the Terms of Reference which can be found here and include membership, representation (Board) and constitution. We commit to following the recommendations of the report and thereby honouring the outcomes of the community engagement process. It is the director's desire that this new entity be a not-for-profit organisation.

We would like to assure the Burning Seed Community that during the transition phase we pledge to support the continued success of Burning Seed by ensuring fiscal continuity and by working with the event's operational team. We confirm that the funds raised through the Burning Seed event will remain with the community and that the community will be consulted now and in the future, once the new entity is formed, as to how the assets should be divided. In addition we will be opening up the current Red Earth City Director's Board and will be announcing further details on including new members, the application and selection process.

To stay informed of new developments, updates and receive information on future consultations opportunities please sign up to our Future of Seed email list here. If you have any questions about this statement or this process please email futureofseed@burningseed.com
